

Swinomish Earth Day Enhancement Celebrations Incorporating culture, communities and service projects

Britta Eschete, People For Puget Sound*

Ramona George, Swinomish Indian Tribal Community

Susan Moreno, Swinomish Indian Tribal Community Planning Department

Keywords: community celebrations, restoration, Native American, partnerships, culture and tradition, earth enhancement activities

Incorporating culture and an appreciation of place into celebrations has been the theme for the past “Swinomish Earth Day Enhancement Celebrations” that have happened in La Conner, Washington. Learn about the process of organizing, partnerships, activities and traditions from an accompanying paper description of this event. View pictures taken at the last two celebrations that highlight this annual gathering which brings people together from North Puget Sound.